

Narlan Matos (Brazil/USA) was born in Itaquara, Bahia in 1975. At the age of 21, he published his first poetry book Lac which won the Jorge Amado Foundation Award in 1997. His second poetry book In the Campsite of the Shades won his first national prize for Brazilian Literature in 2000. In 2002, he participated in the International Writing Program, University of Iowa. His third poetry book, published by 7 Letras Publishers, has been translated into several languages and chosen as one of the best poetry books of the year in Portugal /Telecom International Award. He participates actively in various literary programs and festivals in the United States and has won numerous literary and artistic accolades. His poetry has been translated into Slovenian, English, Lithuanian, Japanese, Hindi, and Chinese. He is an adjunct professor at Montgomery College, D.C. For more information: www.narlanmatos.com

People

LAF Event Participants

LAF People

Prifysgol Cymru
Y Drindod Dewi Sant
University of Wales
Trinity Saint David

Cyngor Celfyddydau Cymru
Arts Council of Wales

© 2021 Literature Across Frontiers. All rights reserved.

Terms | Privacy | Site Map